
ABOUT THE ASSOCIATION

www.iowapoetry.com
ipa@iowapoetry.com

The Iowa Poetry Association is a non-profit organization whose sole objective is to promote interest in and appreciation of poetry among Iowans through educational opportunities, poetry writing contests and the publication of our annual anthology of Iowa poetry, Lyrical Iowa.

- Lyrical Iowa is an annual book of up to 400 winning and other high-ranking contest poems, available at cost from editor, Marilyn Baszczyński, 16096 320th Way, Earlham, IA 50072. Delivery of books anticipated in October or November. Some previous editions are available. Check online at iowapoetry.com or with the editor for availability and price.
- The IPA newsletter is published quarterly with news on events and members of the association, as well as submission and contest resources for poets and resources for teachers.
- The IPA LIVE! online program offers monthly mini-workshops on craft, Iowa poets, and much more, as well as quarterly readings.
- Each year, IPA offers two workshops in the Des Moines area, where poems are critiqued by eminent teachers, editors or publishers.
- NEW! beginning Fall 2022, IPA sponsors Slam Poetry Competition events.

Membership is open to any individual or group with an Iowa address. Annual dues are $8.00. Patron dues, $15 or more, provide the same benefits but help to support the work of the organization.

Send questions to ipa@iowapoetry.com.

Iowa Poetry Association's 78th Annual Contest General Rules - All Divisions

also available at www.iowapoetry.com

1. Contests are open to all persons with Iowa residence (see College exception). No entry fee. No membership or book purchase required.
 2. Poems must be original and unpublished, including on-line and self publication.
 3. Poems must be submitted by their author, except for student poems, which may be submitted by student, teacher or parent.
 4. Vulgarity or pornography is NOT accepted.
 5. Up to 5 poems may be submitted by one author.
 6. All poems except haiku must have titles.
 7. 20-line limit unless otherwise specified. Line limits do not count title nor spaces between stanzas. Lines should not exceed 65 characters or editor may make arbitrary line breaks and count them as separate lines.
 8. Send poems after January 1, 2023 to editor for your division. Deadline: February 28, 2023
 9. Winners and others to be published in Lyrical Iowa 2023 will be notified as soon as all judging and poem selections are completed (mid-summer). No one will receive more than one award. No more than one poem will be printed per author. IPA has first publication rights; all other rights automatically revert to each author AFTER our publication in late fall.
 10. Poems may not be withdrawn after submission. No simultaneous submissions.
- Specific Rules for Adults and Students
